Security Huts are similar in construction to our Jackleg Cabin Range and come as standard with a plastisol external finish. Plastisol finish is 9mm Far Eastern Plywood which is laminated with plastic coated steel sheet. This gives our cabins a durable, low maintenance and attractive finish that is suitable for a variety of uses. Doors, fascia, skirting corners and jacklegs can be supplied either in the same colour or an additional colour if preferred.

A traditional Textured & Painted finish is also available on request for a small cost reduction if required.
