Who are we?

- Overview: PMG Worldwide was formed in 1993. The original conception for the company was to offer more personalised freight forwarding and logistics services tailored to meet clients' real requirements and as such offer a real alternative to the routine services offered by others. Our customers are real people with whom we work in partnership to find the right solutions.
- 30 Years Experience: The company's staff has over 30 years of experience in the industry dealing with all modes of transport, which enables us to serve our clients with the highest levels of service possible. Communications are given a high profile so that everyone knows what is happening on their shipments at all times by telephone, fax, e-mail as well as through online carrier tracking systems. The head office is located beside London Heathrow Airport & we have representation at all UK airports and ports

Where Quality Service & Performance Meet . . .

- Freight Forwarding Services: The range of activities operated by the company includes:
 - Product procurement
 - Airfreight - export & import services by direct MAWB on scheduled airlines, air charter or consolidation
 - Courier Services
 - Ocean freight - LCL & FCL
 - Cross Trade air & sea traffics, worldwide
 - UK, European & U.S national distribution & trucking services
 - Customs brokerage at all ports & airports
 - All types of shipping & commercial documentation
 - Letters of credit
 - Reports compiled to clients' requirements
 - Consolidation of orders into single shipments
 - Warehousing with full inventory control and pick & pack facilities
 - Project management
- Professionalism: PMG are trading members of the British International Freight Association (BIFA) & the all staff are professional members of the Institute. As members of BIFA we are authorised to issue our own bills of lading and documentation. We are also fully accredited members of IATA.
- Global Freight Forwarding: Together with our network of exclusive agents we can take care of all transportation to and from Europe, North America, South America, Africa, Asia, Australasia and the Middle East. In fact anywhere in the world, whilst maintaining the same high level of service throughout and from door to door.
- Customer Service: Our customer base includes all types of clients - from the very small, requiring additional assistance and guidance with the import/export business to multinationals and blue chip corporations.
- Quality: PMG's comprehensive freight forwarding service means that we will attend to all your requirements from product sourcing to shipping around the world by the most efficient and cost effective methods possible. We take care of everything letting our clients get on with their business. [
