SERPRO

Essential Workshop Consumables

Covering all of the UK, SERPRO brings you all the vital consumable products that help you get the job done; from degreasers to gloves, wipers to bunded spill pallets and absorbents to industrial cleaning supplies. We supply premium and durable products together with a professional service.

Our range is extensive and includes not only our own products but also major branded items from DEB, Polyco, Spillpod and WD-40. All the items that are shown in our online shop are available from stock.

SERPRO absorbents and spill kits are used in many industries and situations, from chemical and fuel to oil and waste management. Whether your business is a warehouse a laboratory a repair shop or a manufacturing plant, we have products that help you clean, degrease, wipe and absorb, along with the best price, best service and best quality.
