

The background of the entire page is a dark, textured surface, possibly black or dark grey. Scattered across this surface are several pieces of white ceramic tableware. These pieces feature intricate, marbled patterns in shades of green, teal, and grey. The patterns resemble natural stone or wood grain. One piece is a long, narrow rectangular tray, another is a round shallow plate with concentric ridges in the center, and there are several other round plates of varying sizes. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the glossy finish of the ceramic and the depth of the marbled colors.
