

Conveyors

No matter how small, large or diverse the application Priden will design and manufacture a bespoke conveyor system that will not only solve your production problems but will be reliable for years to come. Taking into consideration the environment in which our conveyors will be working in and the strict clean down regimes in place our designs always incorporate a method for easy effective wash down.

