

Hydraulic Wet Kits

Priden Engineering offer hydraulic systems to suit any application and are all available from stock. Single, dual or multi applications can all be either fitted on site at Priden Engineering or complete kits can be supplied for fitment in your own workshop.

All products are fully warranted and are offered with unrivalled sales and technical support.

Priden Engineering also has a number of fitting agents based around the UK if movement costs prove expensive. Please contact our sales team for more information.
