

@Desktop

@Desktop is an information application that communicates with all WEM Internet loggers in real time. It is a virtual chart recorder that will poll WEM loggers and display values and write data to file. @Desktop is uniquely customised: charts, grids, names, colours can all be changed to suit a users needs. @Desktop is a breakthrough application that helps energy users respond rapidly to changing operational requirements and market movements.

Features

- Collects data from WEM loggers in real time over IP.
- Displays instantaneous values.
- Displays current meter status and flash alarm messages in the event of problems.
- Displays current and month to date billing values.
- Displays load profile data of past 24 hours as a table or as graph.
- Write values into local database.
- Tariff entry screen.
- Estimate energy costs using the tariff engine.