

Tank Contents Gauge - Direct Acting

Mostly used to measure:

Fuel oil, Diesel, Paraffin, Lube oil, Printing inks, Kerosene & Water

Application

For use direct measurement of levels in a tank.

Installation

The gauge is fitted to the side of the tank or to an outlet connection as near to the bottom as practical. It will indicate the actual contents above the gauge mounting position.

Specification

Standard 304 st st case with brass internals
Glass window

Options

304 st st case with 316 st st internals
Acrylic or safety window

Installation Details

The gauge is fitted approx. 1m from bottom of tank, and indicates the actual head of liquid above the gauge. Gauges are graduated in fractions or 0-100%. Custom marked dials to suit most size tanks. 100mm or 160mm dial size. Connection standard 3/8" bsp a 1/2" bsp a Low. Loss connector can be supplied if requested. For Custom dials, questionnaire Q28ABC must be completed

Schematic

